

22nd ANNUAL BIOLOGISTS' MEETING – FEB 4th & 5th 2020

10:00 Tea, coffee & scones

10:30 Welcome & Introductions

10:35 Session 1 – SFCC member updates - local

12:30 LUNCH

13:30 Session 2 – SFCC member updates - national

13:30 - Scottish Environment Protection Agency

13:45 - Marine Scotland (Policy)

14:00 - Marine Scotland (Science)

14:15 - Fisheries Management Scotland

14:30 Tea & coffee

15:00 Session 3 – Mapping Pressures on Wild Atlantic Salmon in Scotland

- Summary of progress to date

- Feedback from SFCC members

16:00 Fish Counter Network Development - Update

16:30 Close

19:00 Dinner at Pitlochry Festival Theatre – All welcome

DAY 2 – 5th Feb

09:30 SFCC members' annual meeting

10:30 Tea, coffee & muffins

11:00 Session 4 – Native Woodland Restoration

- Current status of native woodlands in Scotland
- Benefits for rivers and native fishes under climate emergency
- Long-term vision for Scotland's rivers and burns
- Options and opportunities for restoration

12:30 LUNCH

13:30 Session 5 – Riparian Woodland Restoration -group workshop discussions

- Case studies from SFCC members

- Regional group workshop sessions facilitated by native woodland professionals
- Rapporteur summaries from each group
- Riparian woodland vision
- Discussion and next steps

15:30 Close & Safe Home

15:30 -17:00 'Bring & Read' fish scale reading session led by Ronald Campbell
– Freshwater Fisheries Laboratory Conf. rm.